PETER M. HOLT

Chairman and CEO, Spurs Sports & Entertainment

Now in his 15th season as Chairman and CEO … he and his wife, Julianna Hawn Holt, bought into the Spurs ownership group in 1996 … since that time the organization has enjoyed unprecedented growth and success … four NBA championships, a successful campaign for a new arena and two new San Antonio-based sports franchises are among the accomplishments achieved during Holt's tenure … thanks in part to the AT&T Center – which opened in November of 2002 – the organization is now known as Spurs Sports & Entertainment … with over 200 fulltime employees, Spurs Sports & Entertainment runs four professional sports franchises – the Spurs, the Silver Stars, the Rampage and the Austin Toros – while also managing the day-to-day operations of the AT&T Center … over the last 12 seasons (since Tim Duncan joined the team in 1997–98) the Spurs have posted a regular season record of 669-283 … the team's winning percentage of .703 during that span is the best of any team in the four major sports (MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL) … during the Duncan era the Spurs have captured four NBA championships (1999, 2003, 2005 and 2007) … the Spurs organization has twice been named the best franchise in professional sports (2003 and 2005) in the annual ESPN The Magazine Ultimate Standings survey (each year the Ultimate Standings ranks every professional team in a formula using analysis of team financial data combined with fan feedback in which over 30,000 fans judge teams by eight factors including players, bang for the buck, ownership, and stadium experience … in June of 2007 SS&E purchased the Austin Toros of the NBA Development League (the Spurs are one of three NBA teams – along with the Lakers and the Thunder – to own and operate their own D-League team) … the great-grandson of Benjamin Holt, inventor of the first track-type tractor which became the basis for Caterpillar Inc. … serves as the CEO of San Antonio-based HOLT CAT (the firm still displays several of Ben Holt's early tractors outside its headquarters) which is the largest Caterpillar dealership in the United States … born in Peoria, Illinois … lived in San Antonio as a child before moving to Corpus Christi, where he graduated from high school … served two years in the U.S. Army during which time he earned a Silver Star, three Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart from his one-year tour of duty in Vietnam … ended his military service as a Sergeant E5 … in 2009 named Fundraising Chairman for an Education Center to be built at the Wall of the Vietnam Veteran's Memorial … a staunch believer in community service … is proud of the Spurs commitment to South Texas and its residents (in 2000 the Spurs earned the Pro Team Community Award presented by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame, an award presented annually to the professional sports franchise that best illustrates exceptional community involvement and fosters community pride and spirit) … among the Spurs community efforts are the Spurs Youth Basketball League, the annual countywide United Way campaign and a variety of educational outreach programs which service over 85 percent of the elementary schools in Bexar County (during the 2007–08 season over 200,000 area students were touched by the various SS&E education programs) … Holt's own efforts include a lengthy list of community service positions … in July of 2007 was appointed chairman of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission by Governor Rick Perry … a member of the World Presidents' Organization … is the corporate chair of the Consortium of Partners OwnUp SA No Kill initiative … 2009 recipient of Woodrow Wilson Award for Public Service … serves as a board member for Free Trade Alliance San Antonio, the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation, the Trust Company and the Texas State Aquarium … serves as board member of the Bexar County Performing Arts Center Foundation … is a trustee of Trinity University and serves on the advisory board of the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas … past chairman of the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County … named to the Texas Business Hall of Fame in 2004 … he and Julianna have been Spurs season ticket holders since 1988.

RICK PYCH

President/Business Operations

In his 18th season with the Spurs … leads the business operations for all four sports franchises owned and operated by Spurs Sports & Entertainment which includes the Spurs (NBA), the Rampage (AHL Hockey), the Silver Stars (WNBA), and the Austin Toros (NBA Development League) as well as the operations of the AT&T Center … includes marketing, corporate partnerships and ticket sales, finance and administration, communications, corporate development, community relations, and facilities management as well as all corporate business and player planning and new initiatives on behalf of the organization and ownership … over 34 years of financial and business management experience in public accounting, banking, real estate, and sports and entertainment … named the Spurs chief financial officer in 1993 … promoted to executive vice president in 2000 and president of business operations in 2008 … in 1995 started a development, financial and operating study for a new multipurpose arena that would eventually be the new home to the Spurs … was named in 1999 as the chief development officer for the AT&T Center … managed the successful county referendum in 1999 that provided public funding to build the AT&T Center and again in 2008 a second referendum that will provide funds for additional improvements starting in 2012 … directed all aspects of the AT&T Center development project … led negotiations with Bexar County in finalizing the arena's development and operating agreements … negotiated and arranged adequate credit capacity to provide SS&E's contribution to the construction project as well as ongoing franchise funding … oversaw a team of architects, contractors, and project managers in the design and construction of the AT&T Center which opened on time and on budget in October 2002 … led the organization's efforts to bring hockey to the AT&T Center … in 2002 negotiated the purchase of an American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate and then entered into a joint venture and affiliation with the Florida Panthers to play in San Antonio … in the summer of 2005 led SS&E's effort to become the sole owner of the San Antonio Rampage and negotiated a new affiliation agreement with the Phoenix Coyotes that was renewed in 2008 … past chairman of the AHL Executive Committee and is the current Board of Governors representative … in the summer of 2007 led the negotiations to purchase the NBA Development League team in Austin, Texas, the Austin Toros … a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Sports Foundation dating back to 1989 … was part of the organization's efforts to bring major sporting events to San Antonio, including the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1993, the 1995 National Senior Olympics, the 2002 NCAA Women's Final Four and the 1998, 2004, and 2008 NCAA Men's Final Four , and the bid for the 2007 Pan Am Games … serves on the Executive Committee and Board of Trustees of Via Metropolitan Transit, Executive Committee and Board of the San Antonio-Bexar County Metropolitan Planning Organization, Executive Committee and Board of the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation and the Board of the San Antonio Tax Increment Reinvestment Zone … holds a degree in accounting from Fairfield University and is a CPA … has a 23-year-old son, Zack who played two seasons of junior hockey in the AJHL and is now attending Hamilton College in Clinton, NY.

R.C. BUFORD

President of Sports Franchises

Named president of sports franchises for Spurs Sports & Entertainment in July of 2008 … in his current position continues to serve as the general manager of the Spurs while overseeing the sports administration for the other three teams in the SS&E family (the Austin Toros, the San Antonio Silver Stars and the San Antonio Rampage) … in his 20th season with the Spurs … started his coaching career at the University of Kansas in 1983 … during each of his five seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks participated in the NCAA Tournament … was an assistant coach for the team that won the 1988 NCAA Championship as well as the 1985–86 squad that advanced to the Final Four … made the move to the NBA in the summer of 1988 joining the Spurs as an assistant coach on Larry Brown's staff (other assistants on that staff included Gregg Popovich, Alvin Gentry and Ed Manning) … spent four seasons as an assistant with the Spurs … during that time San Antonio won back-to-back Midwest Division titles (1990 and 1991) … joined the Los Angeles Clippers in the summer of 1992 as the first assistant for Coach Brown … the Clippers posted a 41-41 record during the 1992–93 season and earned a spot in the 1993 Playoffs … served as an assistant coach at the University of Florida during the 1993–94 season (as the team advanced to the Final Four for the first time in school history) … returned to San Antonio in the summer of 1994 when Gregg Popovich hired him as the team's head scout … in the summer of 1997 he became the Spurs director of scouting … promoted to vice president/assistant general manager in the summer of 1999 … was named the Spurs general manager in July of 2002 … there are four NBA general mangers who either worked or played for the Spurs during his tenure in San Antonio: Danny Ferry (Cleveland), Steve Kerr (Phoenix), Sam Presti (Oklahoma City) and Kevin Pritchard (Portland) … played collegiate basketball at Texas A&M University and Oklahoma State before receiving his degree from Friends University … involved in the NBA Basketball Without Borders Africa camp … served as a Board Member for Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives … serves on the Board of Directors of PeacePlayers International ... his wife, Beth, is a former player on the LPGA Tour … they are both active with the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation … they have three children: a son, Chase, a daughter, C.C. and in 2004 they welcomed Alexis Wangmene to their family … Wangmene is from Cameroon and met the Bufords in September of 2004 during the Basketball Without Borders program in Johannesburg … Chase is a junior basketball player at Kansas and Alexis is a junior basketball player at Texas.

LAWRENCE PAYNE

Executive Vice President/Corporate Partnership and Broadcasting

Lawrence Payne joined Spurs Sports & Entertainment in 1976 after graduating from the University of Texas School of Law. Under his direction, SS&E has built one of the most extensive broadcast lineups in professional sports. Between Spurs, Rampage and Silver Stars, Payne's department is responsible for more than 600 productions each year. Under Payne's direction, the Spurs were among the first in the NBA to bring inventory and sales completely in-house. An executive producer for each and every project, Payne is involved in all aspects from contract rights negotiations to the look of the broadcasts. He also manages the organization's sponsorship sales efforts and inventory, including radio and TV inventory, print, Internet, signage, corporate suites and in-arena and out-of-arena promotions/licensing. Payne also oversees all aspects of Spurs Sports & Entertainment's Game Operations and Community Relation efforts. He has won two national ACE Awards, the Silver Medal at the International Film and Television Festival of New York and several local Addy awards. Payne was selected as a charter member of the NBA Broadcast Advisory Board and is a member of the University of Texas Law School Non-Practicing Advisory Council. He also serves as a mentor to University of Texas Law School Students. He has been married to Mary for 30 years and they have two sons, 25-year-old Bryan, a third-year law student at the University of California-Hastings College of the Law and 21-year-old Will, a junior at UT Austin majoring in Radio-Television-Film.

FRANK MICELI

Senior Vice President/Marketing & Sales

Frank Miceli joined Spurs Sports & Entertainment in September of 2008 after spending more than 10 years as chief operating officer of the American Hockey League's Philadelphia Phantoms. After taking over COO duties for the Phantoms in 1996, he added the role of director of minor league operations for all of Comcast-Spectacor in November 2000. While with Comcast-Spectacor, Miceli was responsible for overseeing the Phantoms and the organization's three minor-league baseball teams (Bowie Baysox, Delmarva Shorebirds and Frederick Keys). Following the 1997–98 season, Miceli earned the James C. Hendy Award, which is presented to the American Hockey League's outstanding executive. His duties with the Phantoms included overseeing all operations, including fiscal management, sales, marketing, advertising, sponsorship sales and public relations. Prior to joining the Phantoms, Miceli was the director of sales and marketing for the Philadelphia Flyers (NHL), managing more than 15,000 season ticket accounts. He was responsible for moving the entire season ticket base of the Flyers into their new home at the Wachovia Center. Miceli joined Comcast-Spectacor in 1990 as vice president of marketing and advertising at Spectathlete. Prior to joining Comcast-Spectacor, he served as the advertising director for the Clover division of Strawbridge & Clothier in Philadelphia, advertising manager for John Wannamaker in Philadelphia and advertising director for Gimbels in both New York and Philadelphia. A native of South Philadelphia, Miceli earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Scranton. He and his wife, Michele, have two daughters, Amanda and Maria.

LORI WARREN

Senior Vice President/Finance and Corporate Administration

Lori Warren is in her 18th year with Spurs Sports & Entertainment. She spent seven seasons as the team's controller and was named vice president of finance in the summer of 2000. Recently named senior vice president—finance and corporate administration, Warren is responsible for all financial operations and reporting, cash management, related tax matters and insurance risk management for Spurs Sports & Entertainment, as well as oversight responsibilities in the areas of human resources, employee development and corporate administration. She was heavily involved in all financial aspects of the AT&T Center development project. Prior to joining the Spurs organization, Warren worked in the audit department for KPMG Peat Marwick in Dallas and San Antonio. A Certified Public Accountant, Warren graduated with a degree in accounting from Texas A&M, where she played one season of varsity tennis. Warren was selected as a member of the 2007–08 Leadership San Antonio Class 33. She is a 2007 recipient of the San Antonio Business Journal's 40 under 40 award, a member of the Texas Society of CPA's and is an active volunteer with her children's school and sports activities. She and her husband, Garren, have two sons, Chandler and Trevor.

JOE CLARK

Vice President/Ticket Sales and Services

Joe Clark is in his 26th season with Spurs Sports & Entertainment. He began his career with the Spurs as a sales intern and today is responsible for the entire ticket sales, premium and season ticket services, as well as the ticket operations departments. He served in several roles with the Spurs organization before being promoted to his current position in 1992. He led the organization's drive to put "fans first," an effort executed by a team of 14 service professionals who work in Guest Services serving suite, courtside, charter, plaza and Club 200 season ticket holders. Clark oversees an experienced team of 19 season and group ticket sales executives who consistently provide a first class outing in addition to a great seat for a Spurs, Rampage or Silver Stars game. He also leads a tenured team of 10 ticket operations and database staff responsible for the individual game ticket sales and ticket administration. He has twice coordinated relocation efforts for Spurs ticket holders (from HemisFair Arena to the Alamodome in 1993 and from the Alamodome to the AT&T Center in 2002). A native of Janesville, Wisconsin, Joe received his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and a master's in sports management from Western Illinois University. He is a member of the 2009 Leadership San Antonio Class sponsored by the Greater and Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. He also serves on the board for the Baylor S3 Sports Sales Sponsorship program. He and his wife, Linda, have two daughters and a son, 17-year-old Kelsey, 14-year-old Alyssa and 10-year-old A.J.

LAURA DIXON

Executive Director of Silver & Black Give Back and Community Relations

Laura Dixon as a passion for volunteering with organizations that make her community a better place to live. She was a founding partner of Victor Credo Sports LLC and brought a tremendous amount of problem solving experience with her to the firm, specifically in the fields of marketing and public relations in the sports and public affairs industries. She was responsible for client management, business development, strategic implementation, marketing, and events; additionally, she was instrumental during the creation of Victor Credo in the development of the corporate strategy and identity, also managed the sales and marketing efforts for the firm and for its clients. Dixon serves as Bill Self's marketing agent, launched his public charity, assists, and manages his non-basketball related endeavors: creative and precise proposals, tight purse strings, attention to detail, and in depth market analysis and research. Her most lauded community relations effort for the Plano CVB was for the creation of the YES! (Youth Explore Sports) Expo, which was honored as the National Association of Sports Commissions' "Best Locally Created Event" in 2007. Dixon chairs the DFW Area Sports Alliance. For six years, she served as the Deputy Director of the Dallas Mavericks/NBA Global Games, volunteered for two years as the Special Team Chair for the Komen Dallas Race for the Cure, and co-chaired the grassroots marketing campaign for the Big 12 Women's Basketball Championship for two years. She served on the staff of the Dallas Fort Worth Regional Sports Commission, the Dallas 2012 Olympic Trials Organizing Committee, and the Dallas Convention & Visitors Bureau Sports Marketing Department. Her specialty is forging relationships and building broad-based community coalitions. Dixon sits on the board of the Lake West YMCA, Finish Strong Dallas, and the City of Dallas' Sports Arena TIF Board and TOD Board. She is a member of Junior League Dallas, Leadership Plano Class XIX, and was invited to join the Summit on Sports Think Tank in the summer of 2007. She has been a guest lecturer for the sports marketing program at Baylor University, Texas A&M, National Association of Sports Commissions and Sports Travel Magazine.

Dixon graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a MBA in May 2006, Bachelor of Science degree in nutrition and minors in sports management and hospitality management (Texas Tech University 1999). She received certification from the University of Texas at Austin in Community Minority Business Administration, the University of Kentucky as a Certified Sports Event Executive, and Southern Methodist University in Non-Profit Executive Leadership.

Dixon was born in Sherman, Texas, and raised near there (north of Dallas) on a farm. She lived in Dallas for the majority of her professional career but has family that lives in San Antonio and her brother and his family manage the Back Porch Ranch, just outside of Bracketville. Her love of community and sport come from her family, where she is one of 12 children.

LEO GOMEZ

Vice President of Public & Government Affairs

A member of the Spurs organization since July 1996, Leo Gomez is responsible for Spurs Sports & Entertainment's strategic goals involving media, government and business development. Born in Edinburg, Texas, and raised in McAllen, Gomez received his bachelor's degree in political science and business administration from the University of Texas at Pan American. He earned a master's degree from the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas and began his professional career as an intern with the U.S. General Accounting Office in Washington, D.C. Gomez enjoyed a stint with the Texas Department of Commerce before being named the assistant director of the Tomas Rivera Center's Texas office in San Antonio. Gomez was then named vice president, government affairs for the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, later serving as president of the San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce prior to joining the Spurs organization. Gomez worked as the GM of Administration at Toyota Motor Manufacturing, Texas for a year and a half before returning to SS&E in the summer of 2005. Very active in the San Antonio community, Gomez serves on the Board of Directors for numerous organizations, including Christus Santa Rosa Hospital, San Antonio for Growth on the Eastside, the City's Military Transformation Task Force, Fort Sam Houston Community Advisory Board and the City's Linear Creekway Parks Advisory Board. He has two children, Manuel Leo and April Gloria.

RUSSELL WARREN

Silver Stars Director of Business Operations

Russell J. Warren joined the Silver Stars as Director of Business Operations in June 2006. He manages the franchise's business operations, overseeing all aspects of the WNBA day-to-day operations and working on promoting women's basketball in the community.

A Texas Tech alumnus, Warren spent three years as an assistant athletic director for the Red Raiders, working with Marsha Sharp and the Lady Raider basketball program. During Warren's tenure, the Lady Raider program, which is considered a model for best practices in the NCAA, saw a significant increase in attendance and financial success. Prior to earning his assistant athletic director post, Warren served as director of ticket operations for the department. He joined Texas Tech in 1996 after working as director of marketing and special events for the Southwest Conference during its final years.

Warren also served as ticket manager at Baylor University, assistant ticket manager at Southern Methodist University and as a marketing and sales representative for the Dallas Cowboys. He began his career immediately following graduation from Texas Tech as an administrative intern for the Southwest Conference. He has overseen numerous NCAA and conference championships at both the collegiate campus and conference levels, also serving on the Cotton Bowl game operations staff for several years. Warren is active in numerous civic organizations and holds memberships in the Texas Tech Alumni Association, National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, College Athletic Business Management Association, the Texas High School Coaches Association and is a charter member of the West Texas National Football Hall of Fame Chapter.

Warren is an active member of the San Antonio Sports Foundation and the San Antonio Texas Tech Alumni Chapter.

DAN HUGHES

Head Coach and General Manager

The winningest coach in San Antonio Silver Stars history, Dan Hughes resumes his dual roles as head coach and general manager in 2011. In his dual appointment, Hughes oversees the Silver Stars' basketball staff, the team's roster development and all player acquisitions, while also coaching the team. Hughes stepped aside as head coach to assume a full-time general manager role for the 2010 season.

In 10 years as Head Coach – of the Charlotte Sting, the Cleveland Rockers and San Antonio – Hughes has led his teams to seven playoff appearances, four Western Conference Finals and one WNBA Final. He has collected the third most wins in WNBA history and also is the winningest coach in the history of both the San Antonio and the Cleveland Rockers franchises.

Hughes is the only coach in WNBA history to take three different franchises to the playoffs. He guided the 2008 Silver Stars to a 24-10 mark, earning the best record in the league and the franchise's first Western Conference Championship and its first trip to the WNBA Finals. Additionally, Hughes has been named WNBA Coach of the Year – most recently in 2007 – or finished as runner-up four times.

Hughes is a member of the five-person USA Basketball Selection Committee for the 2010 World Championships and the 2012 Olympics while also serving as a member of the selection committee for the Kay Yow Award. Also, during previous offseasons, Hughes spent time working part-time as a broadcaster on San Antonio Spurs telecasts, as well as on men's and women's college games. Prior to joining the Silver Stars, Hughes spent a year as the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Assistant Commissioner for Men's Basketball Operations. Before joining the MAC's athletic office, he served as the head coach of the now-defunct Cleveland Rockers from 2000-03.

During his four-year stint with the Rockers, Hughes posted a 66-64 record with three trips to the playoffs. His overall record with the Rockers made him the winningest coach in franchise history. In his first season in Cleveland, Hughes directed the team's resurgence from a 7-25 season in 1999 to a 17-15 finish in 2000 and was voted WNBA Coach of the Year runner-up. The following year, Hughes was named 2001 WNBA Coach of the Year after leading the Rockers to a 22-10 record and to their second straight playoff appearance. The 2001 Rockers were one of the best defensive teams ever, posting defensive statistics that still rank amongst the best in the WNBA record books. Cleveland led the league in three defensive categories during the 2001 season, including opponents' points per game (55.9 ppg, first in league history), opponents' field goal percentage (.381, second in league history) and opponents' total rebounds (27.84 rpg). The Rockers finished second in point differential (+6.8 ppg) and opponents' defensive rebounds (18.56 drpg). Hughes' Rockers kept 11 teams to 50 points or less, three teams to fewer than 40 points and five teams to their franchise low, including a WNBA record 34 points vs. Washington on May 31, 2001.

Hughes earned his first shot at coaching in the WNBA with the Charlotte Sting. While serving as an assistant coach during the 1999 season, Hughes took over as head coach midway through the season; he helped the Sting improve their standing in the Eastern Conference from fourth to second place, posting a 10-10 record. He led the team to its third consecutive playoff appearance and its first ever playoff series victory. In addition to his coaching responsibilities in Charlotte, Hughes was a scout for the Charlotte Hornets during the offseason.

Many of Hughes' former players and assistant coaches have gone on to become coaches both at the college level and within the WNBA. Hughes' former athletes who went on to become Division I coaches are: Suzie McConnell-Serio (Duquesne); Dawn Staley (South Carolina); Jennifer Rizzotti Sullivan (Hartford); and Tricia Bader Binford (Montana State). Four of Hughes' former assistants have become WNBA Head Coaches: T.R. Dunn (Charlotte); Brian Agler (Seattle); Cheryl Reeve (Minnesota); and Suzie McConnell-Serio (formerly Minnesota).

A native of Lowell, Ohio, Hughes has been involved in coaching basketball at almost every level in the Buckeye State. Prior to joining the Sting, he served as the assistant coach with the University of Toledo's women's basketball program (1996-97) and men's basketball program (1991-96). During his tenure with the Rockets' women's team, they posted a 27-4 record, winning the MAC Championship, and made an NCAA Tournament appearance. He also served assistant coaching stints with the men's teams at Mount Union College (1982-84 and 1985-91) and Baldwin-Wallace College (1984-85).

During the 1977-78 season, Hughes served as a graduate assistant at Miami of Ohio, helping the team to a MAC Championship and an appearance in the NCAA Regionals. Hughes graduated with a degree in physical education and history from Muskingum College in New Concord, Ohio, in 1977. He earned a Master's Degree in education from Miami University of Ohio in 1978.

Hughes and his wife, Mary, have two children, Bryce and Sara, who coaches high school volleyball and basketball.

STEVE SHUMAN

Assistant Coach

An eight-year WNBA coaching veteran, Steve Shuman joins the San Antonio Silver Stars as assistant coach in 2011.

Shuman previously served as assistant coach and video coordinator for the Sacramento Monarchs from 1999-2008, helping guide the team to the 2005 WNBA Championship and back-to-back Western Conference titles in 2005 and 2006. He began his career with the Monarchs as video coordinator for two seasons before taking on the role of assistant coach.

During his time with the Monarchs, Shuman maintained dual roles while working with the Sacramento Kings during the WNBA offseason. He began his career in professional basketball as an assistant video coordinator for the Kings in 1997 and maintained this role through the 2006 season when he was promoted to minor league scout. He also worked as an advance scout for the Cleveland Cavaliers (2009) and New Orleans Hornets (2010).

Shuman earned his degree in education from California State University Sacramento in 1989 and began his coaching career as an assistant basketball coach at Jesuit High School in Sacramento (1989-91). He then served six seasons as head coach at Trinity High School in Las Vegas, Nev. (1991-97) before joining the Kings.

"We are pleased to have Steve join the Silver Stars staff. He brings championship WNBA experience from his years on the Sacramento Monarchs coaching staff, as well as NBA experience. His extensive scouting and creative offensive background will be an asset to our team."

VICKIE JOHNSON

Assistant Coach

A two-time WNBA All-Star, Vickie Johnson begins her coaching career with the Silver Stars in 2011.

The first player in WNBA history to record 4,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 1,000 assists in a career, Johnson finished with 4,243 points, 1,641 rebounds and 1,205 career assists. Johnson played 13 WNBA seasons, nine with the New York Liberty and four with the San Antonio Silver Stars, finishing her career as the league's all-time leader in games (410) and minutes played (12,435).

Johnson posted career averages of 10.3 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.9 assists per game in her 13 seasons, averaging double-digit points in seven seasons. She started all but two of her 410 career games, including amassing a 159 consecutive-games started streak which currently ranks eighth in WNBA history.

A native of Coushatta, La. Johnson was originally selected by the New York Liberty in the second round (12 overall) of the WNBA Elite Draft on February 27, 1997 and became the first player in league history to play 300 games on July 7, 2006 vs. Houston. She signed with San Antonio as a free agent on February 9, 2006, becoming the first building block of Dan Hughes' 2008 Western Conference Champion squad. Johnson helped lead the Silver Stars to its first WNBA Finals appearance and earned the 2008 Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award following the 2008 season.

Johnson was a two-time All-American and Sun Belt Conference MVP at Louisiana Tech. She led Tech to the 1994 Final Four, was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year in 1995 and earned Louisiana Player of the Year honors in 1996. She finished her collegiate career with 1,891 career points and 831 rebounds and was inducted into the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame.

Johnson – who also played professionally in Israel, France, Hungary and Turkey – announced her retirement from the WNBA following the 2009 season.

SEASON NOTES

• The Silver Stars advanced to the playoffs for the fourth-consecutive season ... The team lost to Phoenix in the Western Conference semifinals, 1-2.

• A franchise record four Silver Stars, Becky Hammon, Michelle Snow, Jayne Appel and Sophia Young, were named to the WNBA All-Star Team ... It was the sixth career All-Star nod for Hammon and the fourth selection in as many seasons for Young ... Appel was the first Silver Stars rookie named to the All-Star squad since teammate Young accomplished the feat in 2006.

• Young led the team in scoring for the first time since her rookie season, averaging 15.3 points per game ... Hammon was second on the team with 15.1 points per game, averaging double-figure points for the eighth-consecutive season.

SEASON NOTES

• The Silver Stars advanced to the playoffs for the third time since moving to San Antonio ... The team lost to Phoenix in the Western Conference semifinals, 1-2.

• Becky Hammon had the best scoring season of her career, averaging 19.5 points per game to rank second in the league.

• Hammon and Sophia Young were selected to play in the WNBA All-Star game.

• Young scored a career-best 31 points against Los Angeles on Aug. 21 to surpass the 2,000 point mark ... She became the third player form the 2006 Draft Class to reach this milestone.

• Hammon and Young both scored more than 30 points against Detroit on Aug. 29, marking the first time in franchise history that two players accomplished the feat in a game ... Hammon tallied 32 points in the match-up - surpassing the 4,000 point mark - while Young tied her career-high with 31.

SEASON NOTES

• San Antonio finished the season with a league and franchise-best 24-10 record ... The Silver Stars were a perfect 14-0 against Eastern Conference teams during the regular season, securing home court advantage throughout the playoffs.

• Sophia Young launched a buzzer-beating miracle shot for a Western Conference Finals Game Two Victory against Los Angeles ... The following day, San Antonio beat LA for the franchise's first Western Conference Championship and a trip to the WNBA Finals.

• Young earned first team All-WNBA honors and first team all-defensive honors ... Becky Hammon picked up a second team All-WNBA nod and Vickie Johnson claimed her first Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

• On July 27, Vickie Johnson became the eighth player in WNBA history to score 4,000 points. She is the only player in league history to have collected 4,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 1,000 assists in a career.

SEASON NOTES

• Sophia Young joined fellow rookies Saimone Augustus, Cappie Pondexter and Candice Dupree as WNBA All-Stars in New York. The four rookies were the most ever elected to participate in all-star festivities.

• Shannon "Pee Wee" Johnson tied the all-time Silver Stars' record for steals in a game with eight at Los Angeles on July 3. She shares the record with former Silver Star Semeka Randall, who achieved the feat in 2004.

• Agnieszka "Biba" Bibrzycka beat her own career-best three times during the season. She bested her career-high 19 points set in 2004 when she scored 20 against Minnesota on July 16. She then scored 21 at Los Angeles on June 25 and 23 at Los Angeles on July 3. She scored in double-figures in 21 of the 34 games played.

• One of seven players to have played all 10 seasons of the WNBA's existence, Vickie Johnson is the league's all-time leader in games and minutes played.

• Kendra Wecker teamed with San Antonio Spurs guard Tony Parker and former Spurs sharpshooter Steve Kerr at the 2006 NBA All-Star weekend Shooting Stars competition. The trio buried the opposition, setting a new Shooting Stars record of 24.1 seconds.

SEASON NOTES

• The Silver Stars finished the season as the top free throw shooting team in the WNBA with 77.7 percent (488-628) from the charity stripe, a franchise record.

• LaToya Thomas finished her second WNBA season scoring in double-figures in 26 of the 31 games she played in and led the Silver Stars in scoring in 17 of those games.

• After 11 years of waiting, Shannon "Pee Wee" Johnson finally got her wish and came home from Athen with an Olympic Gold Medal. During the Olympic Tournament Johnson played in all eight games, averaging 6.1 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.9 assists in 16.4 minutes per game. Johnson joined USA Basketball in 1994 and experienced her first Olympics in 2004. In 2002, she helped the U.S. bring home the gold at the World Championships and was named to the All-FIBA World Championship team.

SEASON NOTES

• Utah made its second-consecutive trip to the playoffs in 2002 when it knocked off the Houston Comets in the first round, including the first ever double-overtime game in WNBA playoff history. The Starzz bowed out in the Western Conference Finals to the eventual 2002 WNBA Champion L.A. Sparks.

• Natalie Williams etched her name into the WNBA record books when she became the first player to record a 20-20 game, scoring 22 points and grabbing 20 rebounds against Sacramento on June 22.

• Margo Dydek had one of her best seasons, leading the league in blocked shots for the fifth-consecutive season (3.57 bpg) and averaging 13.1 points and 8.7 rebounds (third in the WNBA) per game.

SEASON NOTES

• Utah finished in third place in the Western Conference and secured its first-ever playoff spot. The Starzz lost to the Sacramento Monarchs in the first round.

• Margo Dydek put on a record-breaking performance, as she notched the first triple-doulbe in Starzz history and only the second triple-doulbe in WNBA history with 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocked shots on June 7 against Orlando. Her 10 blocked shots also broke her own WNBA record of nine that was set on Aug. 6, 1998.

• Natalie Williams was selected for the third-consecutive year to represent the Starzz at the WNBA All-Star Game, but was unable to play due to injury. Williams led the way for the Starzz in both scoring (14.2 ppg) and rebounding (9.9 rpg), which ranked second in the WNBA.

• Jennifer Azzi set the WNBA's single-season record in three-point field goal percentage, shooting 51.4% from behind the arc. She also finished second in the league in minutes played (37.3 mpg), third in the league in free-throw percentage (91.7%) and fourth in the league in assists (5.3 apg).

• Dydek continued to dominate the league in blocked shots averaging 3.53 bpg. She also recorded her 400th career block on Aug. 13 against Los Angeles.

• Rookie Marie Ferdinand also finished ranked among the league's best as she shot 49.3 percent from the field to rank seventh in the WNBA.

SEASON NOTES

• Natalie Williams became the first Utah player to earn WNBA Player of the Week Honors for the period ending July 11. In addition, Williams was selected to represent the Starzz in the first-ever WNBA All-Star Game. She also became the first Utah player selected as a member of the All-WNBA First Team.

• For the second consecutive season Margo Dydek led the WNBA in blocked shots per game, averaging 2.41 bpg.

• On July 6, 1999 the Utah Starzz defeated the Detroit Shock, 104-94, in double overtime. The 104 points the Starzz put up marked a franchise record for the most points scored in a game (regulation or overtime). Natalie Williams tied Wendy Palmer's mark of 31 points in a game and Debbie Black handed out a franchise-best 11 assists in the contest.

SEASON NOTES

• The Starzz selected Margo Dydek with the first overall selection in the 1998 WNBA Draft. The move would pay off as Dydek led the Starzz in rebounding, blocks and minutes during the 1998 campaign.

• Dydek made WNBA history when she recorded a league-standard nine blocked shots against the Cleveland Rockers on Aug. 6, 1998. Dydek finished the season leading the league in blocked shots with 3.8 per game.

• Wendy Palmer turned in two of the greatest scoring performances in Utah Starzz history during the 1998 season. On July 8, Palmer tallied 30 points against Charlotte in a 69-77 loss. Later that season, she eclipsed the 30-point plateau again, scoring 31 points in an 81-71 win against Sacramento on Aug. 12.

HISTORY
On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman - the first president of the WNBA

Sheryl Swoopes - the first player signed to the WNBA

Cynthia Cooper - the league's first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets - the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie - the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)

Lauren Jackson - the first international player to win MVP (2007)

Candace Parker - the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles - the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A GROWING GAME
The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 14 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and the league reflects this trend, featuring 20 international players from 13 countries and territories at the end of the 2010 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277 percent since 1991 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 17 percent since 1991 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1991 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

ALL-STAR GAME
The San Antonio Silver Stars and the AT&T Center will host the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game in San Antonio on Saturday, July 23, 2011.

In place of the All-Star Game last season, the league hosted a special event, "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun" at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville Conn. on July 10, 2010. The event showcased the world's best female basketball players under one roof and helped the USA Basketball Women's National Team prepare for the upcoming FIBA World Championship that fall. The USAB squad, featuring 10 WNBA players and one collegian, defeated a team of WNBA stars 99-72. Sylvia Fowles of the Chicago Sky and playing for USAB, earned game MVP honors. University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma coached the U.S. squad while Seattle Storm Head Coach Brian Agler led the WNBA team.

The first WNBA All-Star Game was held in New York at Madison Square Garden in 1999. The Garden also hosted the event in 2003 and in 2006. Washington's Verizon Center (2002, 2007) is the other venue to host the game multiple times. Other All-Star Games were played in Phoenix (2000), Orlando (2001) and at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. (2009). Due to the Olympics, no All-Star Game was held in 2004 and 2008, although Radio City Music Hall in New York City was the site of an exhibition game on August 5, 2004, as the U.S. National Team, comprised mainly of WNBA greats, faced a squad of WNBA All-Stars in "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Game at Radio City"

INSPIRING COACH
The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to recognize coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma earned the honor in 2010 for his profound impact on female athletes and his demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Pat Summit, Kay Yow, and Jody Conradt.

INSPIRING WOMEN
The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice (2010), Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts (2009), Good Morning America's Robin Roberts (2008), Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (2007), and the WNBA All-Decade Team (2006).

DAWN STALEY AWARD

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Winners include Chamique Holdsclaw (2009), Tamika Raymond (2008), and Tamika Catchings (2007). A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

MARKETING

The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing and Promotional Partners: adidas, American Express, Bacardi, BBVA, CieAura, Coca-Cola, EA, Gatorade, General Mills/Wheaties, Hayworth, HP, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) Hotels, Jamba Juice, NewTek, Nike, Panasonic, Pepperidge Farm, Russell Athletic, Sanofi Aventis, Sanofi Pasteur, Spalding, T-Mobile

Media Partners: USA Today, Parenting Group, Essence, Heart & Soul

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fanbase of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

The WNBA has an extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas. The sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 and again in 2011 – but also served as the presenter of the WNBA Draft since 2007. In 2008 adidas became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

Five WNBA teams have entered the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, the Los Angeles Sparks with Farmers Insurance Group, the Seattle Storm with Microsoft search engine Bing, the New York Liberty with Foxwoods Resort Casino, and the Washington Mystics with Inova Health System.

ATTENDANCE/TV RATINGS

The WNBA concluded the 2010 regular season with its fourth consecutive year of increased attendance. Postseason attendance increased for the third consecutive year, finishing up 36 percent over 2009.

For Games 2 and 3 of the 2010 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 15 percent from 2009 and 79 percent from 2008.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 318,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2010 included more than 30 live national telecasts of regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 40-plus games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2011 will include 70 high-definition regular-season, playoff, and Finals games on ESPN2, ABC and NBA TV. In addition, all WNBA games are available online via WNBA LiveAccess unless: (a) They are televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com, or (b) They are televised at the same time a game is televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tipped off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2010, for the fourth straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. In addition, for the fifth consecutive year, fans around the globe are able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on NBA.com/china.

At the conclusion of the 2010 regular season, WNBA rosters featured 20 international players from 13 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent were the league's MVP, Seattle Storm forward/center Lauren Jackson (Australia), the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and the Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal). They will be joined in 2011 by Tulsa's Elizabeth Cambage (Australia), whom the Shock selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2011 Draft.

WNBA DRAFT

The 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place on April 11 at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. It marked the first professional sports league draft held on the ESPN campus. The Minnesota Lynx selected University of Connecticut's Maya Moore as the top overall pick. The Tulsa Shock selected Elizabeth Cambage second, the Chicago Sky tabbed Courtney Vandersloot third, the Lynx chose Amber Harris fourth, and the Los Angeles Sparks took Jantel Lavender fifth to round out the first five selections.

As part of the WNBA's TV deal with ESPN, the Silver Stars will play two nationally televised games on ESPN2 in 2011.

OWNERSHIP

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Tulsa Shock.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. began play in 2010. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel, and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Entering the 2011 season, 10 women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty, Mary Brock, and Kelly Loeffler (Atlanta); and Dawn Trudeau, Ginny Gilder, and Lisa Brummel (Seattle Storm). A 10th, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Dr. Sheila Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

In 2010, Tina Thompson of the Los Angeles Sparks became the all-time scoring leader with 6,413 points, surpassing her former teammate, Lisa Leslie (6,263) who retired following the 2009 season.

Tina Charles won the 2010 WNBA Rookie of the Year award after averaging 15.5 ppg, 11.7 rpg, and 1.7 bpg, while also setting league records for most total rebounds (398) and doubles-doubles (22) in a single season.

Lauren Jackson won the 2010 WNBA MVP presented by Kia Motors award and also took home 2010 WNBA Finals MVP honors. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first – and only – WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star, and Finals MVP awards during the same season (2001).

Jackson also became the third player to earn WNBA MVP honors three times (2003, 2007, 2010), joining the Sparks' Lisa Leslie (2001, 2004, 2006) and the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes (2000, 2002, 2005). Houston's Cynthia Cooper earned the award twice (1997, 1998). The others to capture MVP honors are the Sacramento Monarchs' Yolanda Griffith (1999), the Sparks' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award), and the Phoenix Mercury's Diana Taurasi (2009).

Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the same season (2008). The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. Lauren Jackson became the WNBA's youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. Diana Taurasi subsequently surpassed Jackson as the fastest to 4,000 points in terms of fewest games played when she reached the milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

Lisa Leslie became the first player to dunk in a WNBA game when she did so on July 30, 2002 vs. the Miami Sol. Candace Parker, also of the Sparks, was the second, throwing down a dunk vs. the Indiana Fever on June 22, 2008.

WNBA CARES

Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week, Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, and Read to Achieve.

San Antonio will host the WNBA All-Star Game for the first time in franchise history on July 23, 2011.

Forward Sophia Young and the San Antonio Silver Stars are active participants in the many programs that fall under the WNBA Cares umbrella.

IN THE COMMUNITY

WNBA CARES

Through WNBA Cares, our teams, players and partners are deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

NBA/WNBA FIT

The NBA/WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families through grassroots programs and events, and products related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. In cooperation with well-established health and wellness organizations, NBA/WNBA FIT informs, educates and engages children and families in healthy living practices.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

WNBA READ TO ACHIEVE

The Read to Achieve campaign is a program that values reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations.

DRIBBLE TO STOP DIABETES

Launched in January 2011, the 'Dribble to Stop Diabetes' campaign raises awareness of the American Diabetes Association's "Stop Diabetes" movement and addresses an important piece of diabetes care and prevention – physical fitness. The program will be aimed at using the simple and fun activity of dribbling a basketball as a way to promote healthy, active lifestyles and diabetes awareness, prevention and management during in-arena team nights.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

Launched in February 2009, Vaccines for Teens is a national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against meningitis, flu and pertussis. Press events are hosted by WNBA teams and joined by the Society of Adolescent Health and Medicine, sanofi pasteur and the NBA league office (including NBA Legend Bob Lanier). WNBA Legend Lisa Leslie is a campaign spokesperson.

JAMBA JUICE

In partnership with Jamba Juice, WNBA FIT will highlight both companies' commitment to promoting fitness/healthy nutrition through joint promotional activities with WNBA teams.

COKE LIVE POSITIVELY CLINICS

In partnership with Coke, WNBA Cares will host five (5) WNBA FIT Live Positively Clinics in priority markets. These fitness clinics will be led by Players or Legends, for more than 75 youth.

Former Silver Star Helen Darling participated in the 2010 Vaccines for Teens initiative.

SILVER & BLACK GIVE BACK

Through our unique resources and opportunities, we work to creatively engage young people to enrich their communities.

We will use the Spurs Sports & Entertainment platform to challenge, communicate and collaborate with our community to make meaningful impressions and lasting improvements through service learning initiatives.

Silver & Black Give Back is a 501(c)(3) public charity. The charity was originally created in 1988, when there was only one team in the SS&E family and has historically been known as the Spurs Foundation. The new name reflects the work it does in conjunction with all of the SS&E teams; the Spurs (NBA), Rampage (AHL), Silver Stars (WNBA) and Austin Toros (NBA Developmental League).

Mission: Through our unique resources and opportunities, we work to creatively engage young people to enrich their communities.

Silver & Black Give Back serves as a fundraising conduit for youth sports and education based service programs throughout San Antonio and South Texas. The two premier initiatives Silver & Black Give Back supports are:

1. Team Up Challenge, a service based learning program
2. Youth sports programs, such as the Spurs Youth Basketball League

Silver & Black Give Back relies on contributions from the public to help the Spurs, Rampage, Silver Stars and Toros engage the youth of South Texas.

TEAM UP CHALLENGE

Throughout this season the Team Up Challenge - a new initiative across 26 school districts - recognizes and rewards students who improve our community through activities that are tied to classroom curriculum. These innovative projects are developed by students to address needs in their own neighborhoods – and the Spurs, Rampage and Stars get to help.

Classes, clubs, and teams participating in the Team Up Challenge are giving back to our community through projects supporting education, environment, health & wellness, arts & culture and uniformed services.

In the 2011 season, 20 semi-finalists receive $2500 in seed funding and five of those 'teams' will each win $20,000 in the Summer of 2011. All teams who apply and are working on projects are eligible to receive incentives throughout the year, including tickets, player appearances, and more.

SAN ANTONIO SILVER STARS

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Preseason/Regular Season Games

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All single-game credentials may be picked up at the Will Call window located at the Southeast Ticket Tower of the AT&T Center beginning two hours prior to tip-off. All credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from the AT&T Center and confiscation of the pass. NOTE: All personal items are subject to search upon entering the AT&T Center. Individual game credentials should be requested through the Silver Stars Public Relations Department a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 4 p.m. on Friday for all Saturday, Sunday and Monday contests.

Media members covering the Silver Stars on a regular basis will be issued full season credentials. Media with season credentials are still required to reserve seating for all games via phone (210-444-5738) or email (lcampbell@attcenter.com). Reserved seating requests should be made to the public relations office by the above mentioned deadline.

Single-game credentials will be issued on a space available basis. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media workroom, media hospitality and both locker rooms.

ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS DURING THE MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

Interviews that need advance preparation or special accommodation should be arranged by contacting the Silver Stars Public Relations Department. This includes all live television interviews for pre- and post-game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND PARKING

The media entrance is located at the Southeast VIP entrance of the AT&T Center. All media members must enter the building trhough this enterance. WNBA and Silver Stars season passes will be honored and single-game credentials will be available at the will call window for pickup. The press doors open two hours prior to tip-off. For those media members who receive season parking privileges, the media parking is located in Lot 4. Media covering Silver Stars on a game-by-game basis can request a parking pass along with their single-game credential.

For more information, contact the Silver Stars Public Relations Department

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom and media hospitality room are located on the event level in the southeast corner of the AT&T Center and are accessible only with a valid credential. Both rooms are open two hours prior to game time time. The professional intent of the media workroom is to provide a meeting and working area for writers, reporters, broadcasters and game personnel. Family members and guests will not be admitted. Any abuse of the media workroom and/or press privleges will result in forfeiture of credentials. The media workroom is equipped with electrical outlets and telephones. For additional phone needs please call Shane Skaggs at 210-444-5153.

MEDIA SEATING

Reserved media seating has been designated at either the courtside press table or in the overflow press seating located on the Plaza Level in sections 101-103 and 126-28. All seats are reserved for each individual media member. Seating charts are posted at the media check-in desk and in the press room. Electrical outlets and telephones are placed on press row for your convenience. In addition, stat monitors, which also show the in-house TV feed, are also available on press row. If a media member is in need of an individual phone, please contact the Silver Stars Public Relations Department for assistance. Statistics and out of town scores will be distributed throughout the game. Media are asked to finish and file stories in the media workroom to facilitate changeover in the AT&T Center.

WNBA MEDIA ACCESS POLICIES

Day of Game

Shootarounds: All shootarounds will be open to the media for the last 30 minutes of the workout. Interviews at the Antioch practice facility will all take place on the court as there is no locker room access at the practice facility. For road games, media should contact the Silver Stars Public Relations Department to verify shootaround times and media access periods. Should the team not have a shootaround, it is not required to have a media "shootaround" interview session.

Pre-Game: The league will retain the policy of a 30-minute open locker room beginning 90 minutes before the game. All head coaches must make themselves available for a minimum of 15 minutes beginning anywhere from 15 minutes prior to the open locker room period through the end of the open locker room period.

Post-Game: Following a 10-minute cooling off period, head coach Dan Hughes will be available to the media and the locker room will be open to the media for 30 minutes.

Off Day Access

Practice: All Silver Stars practices are open to the media. Please check with the public relations staff regarding open practice times for that day. No interviews will take place prior to practice without advance arrangements being made through the public relations department. All interviews will take place on the court at the Antioch practice facility.

INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for San Antonio Silver Stars players and staff should be directed to Public Relations Manager Lindsey Campbell. Interview requests will be accomodated per the WNBA Media Access Policies, listed above. PLEASE CONTACT THE SILVER STARS PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT TO VERIFY PRACTICE TIMES, AS SESSIONS ARE ALWAYS SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

TV/RADIO PERSONALITIES

ANDREW MONACO

TV/Radio Play-By-Play

Andrew Monaco enters his ninth season as the "Voice of the Silver Stars." A year-round fixture at the AT&T Center, Monaco also handles sideline reporting duties on San Antonio Spurs broadcasts.
Prior to joining the Spurs Sports & Entertainment family, Monaco spent four seasons as the radio play-by-play announcer for the now-defunct Orlando Miracle. He also handled TV play-by-play duties on select Orlando Magic broadcasts and was a host/sideline reporter for the Magic and Miami Heat.

He has worked for FSN, Sunshine Network and Comcast, handling TV play-by-play coverage of college football, men's and women's basketball and college baseball. From 1990-95, he was the radio play-by-play announcer for the Orlando Cubs and the Orlando SunRays baseball teams. Monaco and his wife, Laura, have a son, Drew, and a daughter, Gina.

ANDY EVERETT

Radio Play-By-Play

Starting his seventh season as a member of the Silver Stars broadcast team, Andy Everett will handle radio play-by-play duties for selected regular season and playoff games. Everett's broadcast career spans more than 20 years and includes radio play-by-play for St. Mary's University, Texas State University, Boerne High School and the University of Texas at San Antonio. He is a former studio host and pre- and post-game host for the San Antonio Spurs as well. During the last 12 years, Everett has hosted the La Cantera Golf Show every Saturday morning at 8 a.m. on KTKR-AM/ Ticket 760. He currently hosts a sports talk show weekday mornings with Peter Burns on KTKR-AM/Ticket 760. Everett and his wife, Lori, have four children, all of whom enjoy attending Silver Stars games.

BRENDA VANLENGEN

TV Analyst

Brenda VanLengen has broadcast women's sports events on television and radio since 1996. A 14-year announcer on Fox Sports Net broadcasts of Big 12 women's basketball, VanLengen has provided analysis for NCAA Tournament games since 1999. VanLengen also served as the Executive Director of the 1998 NCAA Women's Final Four.

Prior to her broadcasting career, VanLengen coached basketball for eight seasons, including five at the University of Nebraska. In 2008, she was recognized as a "Distinguished Alumni" of the University of Nebraska-Kearney.

Van Lengen was a two-time Academic All-American basketball player at Nebraska-Kearney, where she earned her Bachelor's degree in Business Education, with an Athletic Training endorsement, in 1988. She earned her Master's of Education degree at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1992.

INFORMATION

AT&T CENTER

As the premier entertainment venue in South Texas, the AT&T Center opened in November of 2002. The AT&T Center was built by the initiatives of a public-private venture amongst Bexar County, the Coliseum Advisory Board, the San Antonio Livestock Show & Rodeo and Spurs Sports & Entertainment.

The facility hosts four anchor tenants: the NBA Spurs, the AHL Rampage, the WNBA Silver Stars and the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo. Additionally, the venue attracts a multitude of concerts, family shows and special events. In six years of operation, the AT&T Center has hosted more than 850 events with entertaining in excess of nine million guests. George Strait, the Rolling Stones, Billy Joel & Elton John, The Police, Luciano Pavarotti, George Lopez, Cirque du Soleil and Hannah Montana are just a few of the musical acts that have visited the AT&T Center. Other events include NCAA Basketball, WWE Royal Rumble, The Wiggles, and Professional Mixed Martial Arts Cage Fighting.

The AT&T Center offers diverse events to the San Antonio community and all of South Texas thanks in part to its various seating capabilities, building configurations, curtaining system and technology upgrades. Configurations from an ice show, to basketball, to rodeo, to boxing, to theater can all be accomplished at the AT&T Center. Complementing every event held at the venue is a 360 in-arena LED ring, four video/scoring panels to the Scoreboard, two Lobby LED Color Matrix displays and over six hundred LCD HDTVs throughout the arena.

To leverage its ancillary meeting spaces and exhibition/trade configurations, the AT&T Center offers MSEs, Meetings and Special Events, throughout the year. This additional amenity further illustrates the facility's full-service approach and has resulted in non-traditional bookings such as Toyota's 2007 National Dealer Meeting and Product Launch, Ford's Customer Appreciation Concert with Toby Keith, and AT&T's 2007 National Leadership Meeting.

Built in a "ranch tech" style, the AT&T Center is designed to present a sense of place, both inside and out. The external view, in addition to its distinctive architecture, features park-like landscaping that's both visually appealing and environmentally friendly. Inside, the design continues to capture the South Texas ambiance with festive colors and imaginative details. Adding to the interior appeal of the AT&T Center is a collection of fine art commissioned by Spurs owners Peter and Julianna Holt. The diverse collection is valued in excess of one million dollars and features Texas modern and basketball styled themes.

"We are enormously proud of the AT&T Center and what it brings to the community," said Holt, chairman of Spurs Sports & Entertainment. "We're proud to have been part of the effort. Now we can provide South Texas with some of the best sports and entertainment available anywhere in the U.S."

GAMEDAY ENTERTAINMENT

THE FOX

The Fox is the official mascot of the San Antonio Silver Stars. He began his WNBA career on May 25, 2003 and has been entertaining fans at every home game since. The Fox also appears at various community events in and around San Antonio all year round.

APPEARANCES

Complete the appearance request form on SASilverStars.com to schedule The Fox or the Star Squad to appear at your upcoming event.

THE STAR SQUAD

The San Antonio Silver Stars Star Squad is a group of highly energetic men and women, 18 years of age or older, who entertain fans at every Silver Stars home game. The Star Squad is a unique, interactive team that not only performs, but serves as a vital part of the implementation and activation of all in-game promotions.

The Star Squad is led by choreographer Rachel Garcia, who oversees all interactive teams for the Spurs Sports & Entertainment family, including the Spurs Silver Dancers and Rampage Ice Girls.
